MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director for Personnel

FROM : Assistant to the Director

STAT

SUBJECT :

1. This case had been brought to our attention by Mr. James Reston of the New York Times, who had feared there had been a bureaucratic snafu involved. I assured Mr. Reston this morning that we were satisfied that the Agency had acted with absolute correctness in this matter and our rejection of had been based upon certain weaknesses in character revealed by investigation which made him unacceptable for employment. He professed to be satisfied.

2. I return your report and my notes for files.
